Emanuele Soavi and Cristiana Morganti in their new work "This is a premiere" (© Martin Rottenkolber)

This is a premiere

WUPPERTAL An unusual collaboration brings together two well-known Italian artists, both based in Germany: Cristiana Morganti and Emanuele Soavi. They will be on stage together in their work This is a premiere, in which Morganti – a longtime protagonist at Tanztheater Wuppertal Pina Bausch, and now an independent choreographer – and the choreographer Soavi, who has led his own company Incompany in Cologne for thirteen years, explore their concept of art and theatre in a mixture of worlds, gestures and dance, while also asking questions about their own origins. Morganti and Soavi enter a choreographic space of the memory, playing with personal experiences and historical artefacts, oscillating with humour between life's ups and downs. Previewing on 18 and 19 October at the Pina Bausch Zentrum, Wuppertal, the show will premiere on 24 and 26 October at TanzFaktur in Cologne. On 5 and 6 November the work will be at the Euro-scene Festival, Leipzig. Its Italian premiere is on 29 and 30 November as part of the season at Centro Santa Chiara in Trento, which is a co-producer, along with Il Funaro in Pistoia, where it will be performed on 4 and 5 December.

Contemporary dance in Padua

PADUA The 22nd edition of La Sfera Danza International Festival, from 4 October to 23 November, will be previewing at the Sfera d'oro Award Gala on 27 September, before it presents the official line up of contemporary dance from Italy and beyond. Performances will take place in various spaces around the city, with two striking new locations added this year: the Gallery of the Halls of the Beato Pellegrino University Complex, and the Oratorio di San Giorgio. The Italian companies appearing include Artemis Danza, Borderline Danza, the Accademia Nazionale as well as Padova Dance Project, along with choreographers Andrea Costanzo Martini with Francesca Foscarini and Jessica D'Angelo; from the US, will be Kafra Collective, the Codarts Dance Company from the Netherlands, and Mir Dance Company from Germany, Taiat Dansa and Wako Danza from Spain, and Bittersweet from France. Meanwhile, Showcase15 offers a space for the youngest dancers.
